Academy of Performing Arts, Liberal & Culture Studies Estt. 2015

Coordinator : Dr. Shyamala Nair

The Academy was established to fulfill the need to inculcate in women students a love for the arts and allow the talented to evolve into artists beyond the realm of university curriculum.

The Academy will address the need for specialized and niche learning and scholarship in the fields of performing and liberal Arts. It will seek to affiliate and forge linkages, partnerships with national and international, Competent and accredited centres of Arts.

It will produce scholars of high caliber and create a centre which will integrate state-of art, globally viable, learning and research in culture, liberal and performance studies. It will also allow women a platform to perform which will boost their confidence.

Artists and performers will be invited and festivals will be organized for the dissemination of art and culture.

LADY AMRITBAI DAGA COLLEGE FOR WOMEN OF ARTS, COMMERCE AND SCIENCE & SMT. RATNIDEVI PUROHIT COLLEGE OF HOME SCIENCE AND HOME SCIENCE TECHNOLOGY, NAGPUR

(Estd. 1932)

Principal : Dr.(Mrs.) Shyamala Nair

The college established in 1932, is a premier Women's College in Central India, with its goal centered around women's progress in educational, social and cultural fields.

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Bangalore has consistently accredited the college with 'A' grade in all the three five-year accreditation cycles. The college has been conferred with College with potential for Excellence (CPE) by University grants Commission (UGC) in the year 2016.

The visionary Shri Y.M.Pathak, Founder of the College wrote that 'a divine decree' spurred him on to think of educating women. He wrote 'Divinity desires that a women's college be started at Nagpur'.

This is how the Veteran scholar, Philosopher and Poet, Shri Y.M. Pathak, made his dream come true and the college known as 'College of Arts for Women' with first Principal Smt. Ramabai Tambe was formally inaugurated on 11th July, 1932 by Honourable Justice Dr. M.B. Niyogi, C.I.E., the then Vice Chancellor of Nagpur University and later the President of Women's Education Society. The college was affiliated to the Nagpur University on 1st July 1935 as 'Central College for Women' with Miss Shanti Rangarao as the Principal and Lady Edna Gowan (wife of His Excellency, the then Governor of Central Provinces & Berar, Sir Hyde Clarendon) as President.

In 1952, the name of the college was changed to 'Lady Amritbai Daga College for Women' in memory of the mother of Seth Badridas Daga, who donated a generous sum.

In 1977, Smt. Ratnidevi Purohit College of Home Science Technology was established by the Society on receipt of a munificent donation from Shri Banwarilal Purohit. This was merged in L. A.D. College for Women in the year 1981-82 when the College came to be known as 'Lady Amritbai Daga College for Women of Arts, Commerce and Science and Smt. Ratnidevi Purohit College of Home Science and Home Science Technology'.

The college offers a comprehensive range of undergraduate and post graduate degree Courses and also Junior College (XI & XII).

Diploma in Fashion Technology. Junior College (XI & XII) Arts, Science, Home Science, Commerce, Electronics and Information Technology.

The college was recognized under u/s 2(f) of U.G.C. Act, 1956 as "College Teaching upto Post Graduate Degree level" by University Grants Commission, New Delhi to receive financial assistance during 5 year plan periods.

In 2006 on receipt of donation from Maj.P.W.Barlingey department of Biotechnology of the college was named as 'Smt. Ramabai Barlingay School of Biotechnology'

During 2006-2007, the college was identified as Lead College by Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur on the basis of its sound academic track record.

Today, the versatility of the range of its programmes is its strength. The original strength was of 23 students and presently the college has more than 4500 students on the roll in the Junior and Senior college. The handful of staff is now approximately 300 involved in the faculties of Arts, Science, Home Science, (B.Sc.H.Sc. and B.Tech.) and Commerce.

The college also offers add-on courses designed to support self help initiatives.

GOKUL BALWADI
SEMINARY HILLS

Coordinator : Dr Mrs. Nanda Rathi

In 1974 an innovative project the Balwadi named as 'Gokul Balwadi' commenced functioning as a live laboratory to learn child development in the faculty of Home Science, equipped with toy and book libraries and a 'Women and Child Health Care Centre'. It catered to the needs of the community in the vicinity.

The practice has over the years helped dis-advantaged children to have a thorough grounding in basic concepts. Parental counseling is done which has helped improve sanitation and hygienic practices in the surroundings.

Mid-day meal and total health care programmes are also carried out. Such practices help in all-round development of children.

Prior to this there was a dispensary (Rural Welfare Centre) and a primary school named as 'Suman Vikas' for the benefit of the people of Hazari Pahad a neighbouring village. They were run for almost two decades from 1952 onwards.
