• Report of Constitution Day Programme - 26 November 2020

NSS Unit II of L.A.D & Smt. R.P. College for Women, Nagpur, celebrated Constitution Day on 26 November 2020 on Google Meet Platform. Teaching staff of both Shankar nagar and Seminary Hills campus and NSS Volunteers actively participated in the talk on the 'Basics of Constitution'. The Resource person was by Adv. Deoul Pathak, Practicing Law as an Advocate since 2010. The various aspects of Constitution were lucidly dealt with by the speaker.

Mr Pathak explained the topic very clearly through simple examples and current events which everyone could easily correlate and connect. Law is above all and has no discrimination based on class, creed or religion in society. Keeping in mind the vastness of the country and diverse people in our country, the Constitution touches all aspects of our life. Every authority derives its functions from the Constitution. Constitution is a document which governs the country. The Constitution is depicted as the Living Document and it is helpful for us to become a conscious citizen. He also emphasized on maintaining a proper balance between rights and duties. He opined that the amendments will be imposed on the basic structure of the original documents i.e the Constitution.

Dr. Deepali Kotwal, Principal, motivated one and all to participate in the programme. Dr. Pooja Pathak, Vice Principal, Seminary Hills campus welcomed the guest. Ar. Surashmie Kaalmegh, Committee Member, NSS Unit II introduced the guest. Dr. Meenakshi Kulkarni, Programme Officer, NSS Unit II conducted the proceedings. SADBHAVANA DIWAS AND SAMAJIK EKYA PANDHARWADA

Sadbhavana Diwas and Samajik Ekya Pandharwada/Fortnight were celebrated in L. A. D & Smt. R P College for Women jointly by Departments of History, Marathi and Nirmal Cell from 20 August 2021 to 5 September 2021.

The Samajik Ekya Pandharwada/fortnight was observed in the college by organizing different programs. Due to pandemic situation these programs were held on virtual platform through Google meet.

The celebrations commenced on 20 August 2021 wherein the Sadbhavana Pledge was undertaken through virtual mode by the staff and students on Sadbhavana Diwas. Sadbhavana Diwas is celebrated every year on 20 August to pay tribute to late Prime Minister Mr. Rajiv Gandhi. Sadbhavana means having good feelings for others. The objective of Sadbhavana Diwas is to promote National Integration and communal harmony among people of all religions, caste and language.

Short films screening was done on 30 August 2021. Three short films were screened for the students on Google meet. The first one was an animated film which emphasized the significance of Unity in Diversity of India (<https://youtu.be/3BnF-jWUcPg>). The second film 'Ishwar Allah Ek hai' beautifully conveyed the message of religious harmony (<https://youtu.be/0467mNk-4dM>). The third short film expressed how nationality binds all in oneness irrespective of socio-economic difference (<https://youtu.be/7v1Dau5QwC>). The students enjoyed this session and the idea of communal and national integration was well dissipated.

A guest lecture was organized on 3 September 2021 on the topic: 'Manavi Jeevanat Sadbhavanecha Mahatva' which was delivered by Dr. Ratnaprabha Anjangaonkar, former HoD Marathi, L.A.D and S.R.P College for Women. Her talk was highly engrossing with excerpts from literary works of Sant Tukadoji Maharaj, Sant Dyaneshwar and examples of Ahilyabai Holkar, Shivaji Maharaj etc. The feelings of humanity, integrity and harmony and its importance in our lifestyle was well expressed in her talk. The program was conducted by Dr. Madhuri Patil, HoD History, the Guest speaker was introduced by Marathi department staff Ms. Minakshi Bhoyar. Dr. Shirin Aghor, Convenor Nirmal Cell proposed the formal vote of thanks. She expressed gratitude towards Principal, Dr. Kotwal and Vice-Principal, Dr. A Dhondge for their continuous support. She thanked Humanities faculty Supervisor Dr. Titarmare for her guidance. She expressed gratitude towards Dr. Anjangaonkar for taking efforts and sparing her valuable time for our event. She thanked the staff members and students who attended the program and made it successful. This event concluded the Samajik Ekya Pandharwada.
