ANNUAL GENDER SENSITIZATION ACTION PLAN

The institute belonging to one of the oldest women's education society already has a practice of bringing an attitudinal and a constructive change in the society towards women and thereby focuses on equity within the institute and in the community outreach programmes. The Objective of the activities and programmes is promotion of inclusiveness, tolerance, harmony and women's empowerment among the students and staff.

The action plan for gender sensitization comprised of conducting activities targeted to :

- 1) Increase awareness and empowerment of women
- 2) Augmenting on campus safety facilities and health facilities.

1) Targeted Activities : Increase awareness and empowerment

An active Women Studies Centre in the institute conducts programme on sensitizing students on issues, laws and redressal systems on Sexual Harassment also the Centre celebrated International Women's Day. It also had on its anvil a soft skills Certificate courses taken up in 2021, and in the preceding four years lectures and workshops designed to address current concerns regarding gender were planned some of them are notably on topics Gender Discrimination, Workplace Dynamics , Communication, work-life balance , Self-Esteem, Fear Management, stress management , Women in Leadership, Assertive Skills and Conflict Management, career counselling workshops, Personality development workshops, lectures and opportunities to participate in tournaments, debates and many other extracurricular activities at all levels.

In addition to the Women's study centre and the NSS Units I and II the college has in place cells and committees which regularly undertake programmes on gender sensitization and welfare of its stakeholders viz. Guidance and Counselling Cell (Samadhan), Community Welfare Projects Committee (S.E.W.A.), Mentor Scheme for students , Students Quality Assurance Cell (SQAC), Entrepreneurship Development Cell , "Utkarsha Jeevan Nirwah Upakrama" Short Term Courses Cell, Equal Opportunity Cell , Health Awareness Cell, Human rights Cell, Jagruti Cell & Bulandi cell, Grievances Redressal Committee , Discipline and Antiragging Committee , Training &

Placement Cell , Student's Aid Fund Committee , Intercollegiate Competitions (Outside College) (SARVANGKASH) Committee , Intercollegiate Competitions (of the College) Committee .

The activities which are planned and undertaken every year are always targeted and revolve around Women centric topics. In contemporary society women are multitasking at home and work which is leading to complexities such as lifestyle changes, stress and health related disorders.

Thus Gender Discrimination, Workplace Dynamics , Communication, work-life balance , Self-Esteem, Fear Management, stress management , Women in Leadership, Assertive Skills and Conflict Management, career counselling workshops, Personality development workshops, lectures and opportunities to participate in tournaments, debates and many other extracurricular activities at all levels. cancer awareness, health awareness , mindfulness, nutrition , Self-defence ,entrepreneurship and professional development , Cyber security, financial investments programmes on balanced diet, health awareness are especially targeted etc.

2) Facilities augmented: Augmenting safety facilities and health facilities as mentioned herein.

The institute also had planned a safer and better campus as under:

1. Security guards and surveillance system which round the clock monitoring the entry and exit to both campuses of the college.
2. Firefighting systems have been installed in both campuses.
3. Sanitary napkin vending machines at both Campuses.
4. On campus availability of doctor for health issues as well as psychological problems of students. This facility is also made available in the Girls hostel located in the college premises.
5. A Sports and yoga facilities for holistic development.

LIST OF ACTIVITIES ( 2016 -2021 )

Programmes and events which promote confidence, add to knowledge reserve and hone skills, bring change in attitude, increase awareness of health issues, changed thinking about stereotyped roles and providing a platform for showcasing their talents and imparting capabilities to operate on a level playing field is the way gender equity is perceived by the institute

- CAKE FAIR DEPARTMENT OF HOTEL MANAGEMENT & CATERING TECHNOLOGY

The Department of Hotel Management & Catering Technology, hold a cake fair every year to put into practice the bakery skills acquired by the students. This event is organized by the third year students of the HMCT. The Cake Fair not only helps in bringing out the bakery skills of the students but also empowers the students to use their managerial skills in various aspects such as costing, budgeting, marketing, public relation etc.

The event is held around Christmas Season every year and sale of bakery items prepared by the students is sold across the counter to the visiting people. The students add up new dishes to each cake fair which are trending in that period like red velvet cake. Along with the bakery products few savory items are also prepare by the students. This event is deferent from the food festival as the preparation of item are as per the orders given by the guest at that point of time.

This event brings out the bakery skills of the students and to serve as per the demands of the visiting clientele. This is like an actual restaurant operation. This requires presence of mind to face the crises

• Annual cake Fair “Cocoa Party!” 2018

The Department of Hotel Management & Catering Technology, hold a cake fair every year to put into practice the bakery skills acquired by the students. This event is organized by the third year students of the HMCT. The Cake Fair not only helps in bringing out the bakery skills of the students but also empowers the students to use their managerial skills in various aspects such as costing, budgeting, marketing, public relation etc.

The event is held around Christmas Season every year and sale of bakery items prepared by the students is sold across the counter to the visiting people. The students add up new dishes to each cake fair which are trending in that period like red velvet cake. Along with the bakery products few savory items are also prepared by the students. This event is deferent from the food festival as the preparation of item are as per the orders given by the guest at that point of time.

This event brings out the bakery skills of the students and to serve as per the demands of the visiting clientele. This is like an actual restaurant operation. This requires presence of mind to face the crises situation that arise. This event is unique by itself and has become much awaited event for the city of Nagpur.

Screening of YouTube Videos on Sickle Cell Awareness and Emotional Hygiene

The students of BA Semester III, Marathi Medium in their subject Compulsory English studied 2 poems, The Solitary Reaper by William Wordsworth and The Psalm of Life by H. W. Longfellow as an integral part of their syllabus. It was during the teaching of the poems, the subject teacher screened the YouTube Videos on Sickle Cell Awareness and Emotional Hygiene keeping in view the Health Literacy Year that the College is observing for the year 2019- 2020.

World Sickle Cell Day 2019: Current Theme, History and Significance. It is observed on 19 June every year by the United Nations to spread awareness about sickle cell disease that is celebrating the 40th Anniversary of Though there is no connection whatsoever between the Health Literacy Year theme and the poem mentioned, nevertheless, since the teaching was done with support to ICT, the teacher mentioned about the shape of the tool that was instrumental in letting the name of the disease acquire the name. As it is often observed that the regional class students in the Vidarbha region generally are Sickle Cell sufferers, the students along with their teacher grew curious to know and learn more about the disease. The screening was done followed by general discussion on students' experience of the disease and certain precautionary measures that need to be taken.

W. Longfellow. The theme of the poem dealt with self-controlled emotional therapeutic solutions. Believing in oneself, the essence of pure mind, humility, valuing self and the entire environment, etc. that is responsible to attain happiness was dealt in the post poem discussions. The students expressed themselves pertaining to different challenges they face or have faced and how they could try to overcome the adverse challenges. The poem provided a philosophical fervour during the entire course of its discussion and parallel screening of the videos on Emotional Hygiene.

Manthan, May 2020 First Online Manthan Presentation held on 27th May 2020

The First Online Manthan Presentations were held on 27th May 2020 from 11:30 to 12:30. The entire LAD Clan logged into the Webex Platform that was flawlessly handled by Dr. Archana Masram and Dr. Shreeja Kurup. The Session began with the introductory remarks by the host, Nidhee Meshram, a member of Manthan Team. Dr. Deepali Kotwal, Principal motivated the Team and Presenters by acknowledging the fruitful research oriented activity that Manthan has been able to uphold successfully for more than a decade under the aegis of the Research and Development Cell of the College. Dr. Kotwal emphasised the importance of Manthan towards the development of research in varied fields, the interdisciplinary approach that the teachers and young upcoming scholars have undertaken with keen interest that ultimately contributes towards the society at large.

All the three presenters of the first online venture of LAD are alumni of the College and taught for the session 2019- 2020 in the Faculty of Humanities. The first presenter of the online session was Neha Thosar- Joglekar from the Department of English who made an innovative contemporary and comparative narration attempt to showcase her analytical study of epics and modern epic fantasy novel through her research paper titled “Queen or Pawn: The Portrayal of Women in the Indian Epics and A Song of Ice and Fire”. Dr. Mrudula Kale from the Department of Sanskrit was the second presenter who presented a bilingual paper based on Marathi and Sanskrit drama as a genre. The paper, “मराठीसंगीतसौभद्राणिसंस्कृतसौभद्रम - निवडकपदांचेअवलोकन” had her recite a few verses in both the languages that made her presentation extraordinary. Dr. Minakshi Bhoyar from the Department of Marathi was the third presenter whose presentation was centred on the feminist approach of the renowned Marathi activist Tarabai Shinde. Dr. Bhoyar titled her paper as “ताराबाईशिंदेयांचेस्त्रीवादीविचार” that instantaneously caught the pulse of the attendees. At the end of the presentations there was a brainstorming question and answer round wherein the presenters and participants elevated the Manthan session into a memorable stepping stone in the virtual arena. The Vice Principals from Senior and Junior College, Mrs. Radhika Yelkavar and Mrs. Rita Agnihotri along with the IQAC Coordinator, Dr. Pooja Pathak , IQAC Co-Coordinator, Dr. Sridevi Darisi and Faculty Supervisors, Dr. Durgeshnandini Titarmare, Dr. Chitra Lade and Dr. Asha Tiwari of Humanities, Science and Technology and Commerce and Management respectively encouraged the Manthan Team and presenters with their presence. Dr. Shilpa Sarode, member of the Manthan Team coordinated with the technical team and presenters for the successful organisation of the digital session.

Manthan plans few more sessions during the ongoing Covid19 lockdown times, wherein presenters from outside College will also make their presentation.

Report on Three Day Paper Presentation Series on 'Macbeth'

17th to 19th May 2021

A three day online Paper Presentation series from 17th to 19th May 2021 was organised by Mindtools, a Department of English initiative in collaboration with Manthan, an interdisciplinary platform established under the aegis of the Research and Development Cell of the College from 4pm to 5pm. The presentations were made on Google platform by the B.A. Semester VI, English Literature students on a variety of topics of their choice on the drama 'Macbeth' that is prescribed in the Even Semester by the R.T.M.N.U. Nagpur University, Nagpur.

The Aim of the Paper Presentation series was to provide a chance to the students of English Literature to hold a discussion on syllabus based component and enable them to express their point- of- view regarding the entire setting of the drama 'Macbeth'. Similarly, the Objectives of the series was to provide an opportunity to the students of Literature and to accredit them to express their thoughts and perceptions about the drama in their own unique way of understanding.

Expecting the Outcomes of inducing inclination towards research, re-establishing reading and writing habits amongst students, the expectation was to also inculcate the practice of using resources to support their research and acknowledge the sources they have employed and dissuade plagiarism.

Ten students made their Paper Presentations in this series and Chairpersons were invited for each session to familiarize students of professionalism in their last Semester of under- graduation.

On Day One, the 17th of May 2021,

- Shrinidhi Darbhe made her presentation on , ‘Macbeth as a Swirling Concoction of Loyalties and Dissonance’,
- Arushi Chakravarthy on ‘The Theme of Fate and Free Will in Macbeht’,
- Sanjana Mankar presented her paper on ‘Macbeth's Lust for Power’ and
- Aditi Raut discussed about ‘Significance of Macbeth's Ending’.

Dr. Rashmi Tikku, former Head, Department of English of the College was the Chairperson who discussed at length the presentations made by each Student. She talked about the play being discussed and considered a bad omen; but still generates to thrill the audience and readers alike regarding its plot and the sensitivity of the protagonist as an epitome of human quality.

On Day Two, the 18th of May 2021 of the Paper Presentation,

- Aishwarya Sheorain expressed her views on ‘Thunder and Lightning, Enter the Three Witches’,
- Savy Sadhu elaborated on the ‘Fate of Vile : Dark sides of Lady Macbeth’,
- Gaurangi Jaiswal spoke on the ‘Theme of Deception in the Play Macbeth’ and
- Afreen Sadaf reflected her thoughts on ‘Macbeth's Hamartia’.

Prof. Dr. Subhashree Mukherji, an English Faculty from Kamla Nehru Mahavidyalaya, Chaired the second session. She put forth her thoughts to enhance professional skills through such presentations with appropriate body language and voice modulation. Prof. Mukherji further emphasised upon the development of Presentation Skills that would naturally retain the attention of audience throughout.

Third Day of the Paper Presentations on 19th of May 2021 had – Krupa Zade discussing her point-of-view on 'Prophesies in the play Macbeth and How it Influenced Macbeth' and

- Surabhi Gupta spoke on 'How the Evil Overpowers Virtue in the Play Macbeth',

Mrs. Aditi Sahasrabhojane, Part time Lecturer, Oxford College of Arts, Bangalore the Chairperson of this session interacted with the paper presenters through a highly interactive question and answer round to reassure them with their first attempt of presenting research papers. The Chairpersons appreciated all the Paper Presenters and their choice of topics that they surfaced their deliberations upon. A feedback form was provided to the Paper Presenters to learn about their overall experience of presentations.
