A three day online Paper Presentation series from 17th to 19th May 2021 was organised by Mindtools, a Department of English initiative in collaboration with Manthan, an interdisciplinary platform established under the aegis of the Research and Development Cell of the College from 4pm to 5pm. The presentations were made on Google platform by the B.A. Semester VI, English Literature students on a variety of topics of their choice on the drama 'Macbeth' that is prescribed in the Even Semester by the R.T.M.N.U. Nagpur University, Nagpur.

The Aim of the Paper Presentation series was to provide a chance to the students of English Literature to hold a discussion on syllabus based component and enable them to express their point- of- view regarding the entire setting of the drama 'Macbeth'. Similarly, the Objectives of the series was to provide an opportunity to the students of Literature and to accredit them to express their thoughts and perceptions about the drama in their own unique way of understanding.

Expecting the Outcomes of inducing inclination towards research, reestablishing reading and writing habits amongst students, the expectation was to also inculcate the practice of using resources to support their research and acknowledge the sources they have employed and dissuade plagiarism.

Ten students made their Paper Presentations in this series and Chairpersons were invited for each session to familiarize students of professionalism in their last Semester of under- graduation.

On Day One, the 17th of May 2021,

- ShrinidhiDarbhe made her presentation on , 'Macbeth as a Swirling Concoction of Loyalties and Dissonance',
- ArushiChakravarthyon 'The Theme of Fate and Free Will in Macbeht',
- SanjanaMankarpresented her paper on 'Macbeth's Lust for Power' and
- Aditi Rautdiscussed about 'Significance of Macbeth's Ending'.

Dr. Rashmi Tikku, former Head, Department of English of the College was the Chairperson who discussed at length the presentations made by each Student. She talked about the play being discussed and considered a bad omen; but still generates to thrill the audience and readers alike regarding its plot and the sensitivity of the protagonist as an epitome of human quality.

On Day Two, the 18th of May 2021 of the Paper Presentation,

- AishwaryaSheorainexpressed her views on 'Thunder and Lightning, Enter the Three Witches',
- Savy Sadhu elaborated on the 'Fate of Vile : Dark sides of Lady Macbeth',
- Gaurangi Jaiswal spoke on the 'Theme of Deception in the Play Macbeth' and

- Afreen Sadaf reflected her thoughts on 'Macbeth's Hamartia'.

Prof.Dr.SubhashreeMukherji, an English Faculty from Kamla Nehru Mahavidyalaya, Chaired the second session. She put forth her thoughts to enhance professional skills through such presentations with appropriate body language and voice modulation. Prof.Mukherji further emphasised upon the development of Presentation Skills that would naturally retain the attention of audience throughout.

Third Day of the Paper Presentations on 19th of May 2021 had – Krupa Zade discussing her point- of- view on 'Prophesies in the play Macbeth and How it Influenced Macbeth' and

- Surabhi Gupta spoke on 'How the Evil Overpowers Virtue in the Play Macbeth' ,

Mrs. Aditi Sahasrabhojane, Part time Lecturer, Oxford College of Arts, Bangalore the Chairperson of this session interacted with the paper presenters through a highly interactive question and answer round to reassure them with their first attempt of presenting research papers. The Chairpersons appreciated all the Paper Presenters and their choice of topics that they surfaced their deliberations upon. A feedback form was provided to the Paper Presenters to learn about their overall experience of presentations. This was for the first time that Manthan extended its platform for students to encourage research orientation amongst them. This Paper Presentation series was possible owing to the encouragement and motivation provided by Dr.DeepaliKotwal, the Principal of the College and support extended by Dr.RutaDharmadhikari, the Head, Department of English. Dr.ShilpaSarode helped for the conduct of this Paper Presentation series. All the faculty members of the Department of English of the College attended the series and NidheeMeshram, the subject teacher initiated the entire event.

NATIONAL TRAINING DAY

NSS Unit II in collaboration with JCI Nagpur Central conducted training programme on the topics 'Interview Skills' and 'Personality Development' on the occasion of National Training Day on 23 May 2021 on Google Meet platform.

Resource Person Jc Dr. Arvinder Kaur, Zone Trainer, dealt with the topic 'Interview Techniques'. She opined that according to a survey, to be successful – technical knowledge has only 15 % weightage whereas Attitude contributes to 85 %. She shared some interview tips : First Impression, Dress for success, Good posture and eye contact, Speak clearly with confidence and must have extensive research about the company. She also gave the STAR mantra to formulate answers : S – Situation, T – Task, A – Action, R – Result Resource Person Jc Smita Sangidwar, Zone Trainer, delivered a talk on 'Personality Development'. She stressed that Personality should be overall and not decided by looks alone.

She guided the participants on improving their personality. For developing one's personality, one should be a good listener, have good command over language, control over mind, well-mannered, helping nature, update oneself, accept the mistakes and overcome fear.

She motivated the students to believe in : I can do it, I will do it and learn the progress.

Fifty volunteers participated actively in the event.
