REPORT

Celebration of Kranti Diwas

Kranti Diwas is celebrated in memory of our freedom struggle and our freedom fighters. Quit India Movement of 1942 was an important event in the history of India. On 9th August 1942, when Gandhi gave the slogan of 'Do or Die' the movement took a serious turn and British government imprisoned Gandhi and his supporters. From that day itself 9th August is celebrated as Kranti Diwas.

Due to pandemic situation and lockdown this year the Department of History organized online quiz for the students on 9 August 2020. The topic of quiz was "Quit India Movement" and 35 students participated in this quiz. Quiz was conducted through use of Google form (<https://forms.gle/prBbiw2mYuf3awst5>).
