

ANNEXURE-I

REPORT OF FEED BACK ANALYSIS OF SCIENCE FACULTY

Academic Year 2017-18

Analysis of students feedback forms of science faculty.

- Around 89% students were satisfied for the course content and subject knowledge.
- 85% of the students were satisfied with internal assessment program and the evaluation process was fair and biased.
- About 85% to 90% students strongly agree for completion of syllabus in time, punctuality of teachers, about subject knowledge, use of innovative ways of teaching, attitude towards students, availability in department, participation in discussion.
- Alumnae feedback, maximum students feel proud to be alumnae of the college. Maximum positive response obtained from alumnae for being the part of alumnae association.
- Feedback received from parents was that the teachers are committed and gave good response to parents queries. Parents were also satisfied with security arrangements in the college. Parents gave excellent remarks for value added programs, and different facilities provided in the college. Maximum number of parents gave excellent remarks for Institutional sensitivity to changing educational, social and market demands.

Dept of Applied Electronics

Feedback analysis

- Department has scored very high on almost every aspect.100% alumni are proud to be a ladian. More than 60% alumni are satisfied with Campus environment, activities conducted for overall development of students, teaching standards, students amenities, examination system.
- As course is updated every 3 years, 100% students feel that contents are reasonably relevant. Every student (100%) feel that assessment methods are very good, teachers are very helpful, courses are completed on time, knowledge level of teachers is very high and even teachers inspire them to perform better. Evaluation is unbiased.

Parents have also opined that teachers are highly committed. They are also satisfied with extension activities, security arrangements and infrastructural facilities. Dept need to improve on parent teacher communication.

REPORT OF FEED BACK ANALYSIS OF ARTS FACULTY

Academic Year

ANALYSIS OF ARTS FACULTY STUDENT FEEDBACK FORM

Student feedback received from English medium student-37, Hindi Medium- 44, Marathi medium -27.

70 – 90 % students have strongly agreed about the teacher-student communication, punctuality and preparedness of teachers in class, teachers being helpful and encouraging for discussions. They also strongly agree about teachers having subject knowledge, using innovative teaching methods for completing syllabus in time and unbiased evaluative methods used for assessment.

ANALYSIS OF ARTS FACULTY PARENT FEEDBACK FORM

19 feedback forms were received from Parents of English medium students, 8 from Hindi medium, and one from Marathi medium.

35 – 50 % parents have rated good for infrastructural facilities, learning resources, supportive services, and security programs, system of monitoring student's progress and commitment of teachers. 30- 40 % parents have rated Extension programs, competency of teachers and value added education at college is rated between very good – excellent.

ANALYSIS OF ARTS FACULTY ALUMNAE FEEDBACK FORM

In Arts Faculty 47 forms were received from Hindi medium, 41 from English medium and 33 forms from Marathi medium Alumnae students 45- 75% students have rated institution, campus environment, teaching standards, students amenities, assessments, as excellent and are willing to contribute for institutional development.

REPORT OF FEEDBACK ANALYSIS OF COMMERCE FACULTY

Academic Year 2017-18

At the end of the academic year 2017-18 online feedback forms were prepared and put on website of the college. Email IDs were prepared for various classes and students asked to fill respective forms.

- Alumnae Feedback forms were filled by 111 final year students. Analysis of these forms revealed following results:

80% students feel proud to be L.A.D. Alumnae, 72% students opine that various types of programmes organized by institution are excellent and contribute to the overall development of the students. Also nearly 70% of the students have shown their willingness positively to contribute towards the development of the organization in future as well. 65% of the students find the environment of the campus is excellent. It gives immense pleasure to find that 83% of the students considered that teaching standard of the institute is excellent. They are also highly positive about the student amenities provide to them as 57% of the students find it excellent and 23% as very good. Assessment and examination system is one of the important parameter in judging the quality of institution. Nearly 74% of the students consider that assessment and examination system of the institution as excellent. Overall rating given by students to the institution is positive. Nearly 82% of the students find the institute as excellent and 15% as very good. None of the student had rated it poor or average.

- Students' feedback forms were filled by 107 B.Com. Second year students. Analysis of these forms revealed following results:

Students were asked to rate course contents of their syllabus, in which 78% of the students stated that course content is adequate to be covered for the examination; next they were asked to rate the relevance of the course in the overall structure of the programme in which nearly 47% of the student found it reasonably relevant, whereas 39% of the students found it very relevant. Students were also asked to rate the recommended reading material in which 75% of the students stated that recommended reading material is relevant and adequate. Students were asked to clarify the base of their internal assessment in which 66% of the students stated that internal assessment is based on their projects submitted to the subject faculty whereas 28% of the students stated that it is based on their midterm tests, assignments, as well as projects. Students were asked about the understanding level of the course in their curriculum in which 66% of the students consider the course is just manageable to understand whereas 28% students finds it easy to understand. Students were also asked to rate their subject teachers on various parameters in which most of the students were highly satisfied with all the teachers.

- The institution also considers the opinion of the parents important, hence Parental Satisfaction Feedback was provided to the parents. 136 parents responded it. Parents were asked to rate the provision of career oriented programme provided by the college to the students in which 43% of the parents found it very good and 33% parents found it excellent. Secondly parents were asked to rate the system of monitoring students' progress by the college in which 46% parents stated it as very good and 34% parents as excellent. Parents were also asked to rate competence of the teachers. 49% of the parents found the teachers very good and 33% parents found the competency level of teacher as excellent. Parents were also asked to rate the commitment of teachers towards students. 49% of the parents found the commitment level as very good and 26% parents found it excellent. Parents were asked to give an opinion about whether college is sensitive to community needs and extension programme. Nearly 48% of the parents found this parameter as very good and 39% of the parents found it excellent. Parents were also asked to rate the infrastructural facilities provided by college to students. Nearly 48% of the parents rated it very good whereas 29% parents rated it excellent. Parents were also asked to rate the provisions of learning resources in the college such as library, internet, computer, etc. Nearly 46% parents revealed that the learning resources provided to students are very good whereas 38% parents found it excellent. Parents were asked to rate support services to students like canteen, Career Counseling Cell, etc. in which nearly 43% of the parents rated it very good and 39% of parents rated it excellent. Parents were also asked to rate the value added education programmes in the college. Nearly 54% of the parents rated it very good and 35% of the parents rated it excellent. Next the parents were asked to rate the security arrangements of the college in which nearly 35% of the parents rated it very good whereas parents rated it good. Parents were also asked to rate parent teacher communication in the college in which nearly 37% parents rated it very good and 33% rated it excellent.

FACULTY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR DESIGN

Academic Year 2017-18

At the end of the academic year 2017-18 online feedback forms were prepared and put on website of the college. Email IDs were prepared for various classes and students were asked to fill respective forms.

- Student's Feedback forms were filled by 30 third year students of Bachelor of Interior Design. Analysis of these forms revealed following results:
Students were asked to rate course contents of their syllabus, in which 100% of the students stated that course content is adequate to be covered for the examination; next they were asked to rate the relevance of the course in the overall structure of the program in which nearly 43% of the student found it reasonably relevant, whereas 57% of the students found it very relevant. Students were also asked to rate the recommended reading material in which 100% of the students stated that recommended reading material is relevant and adequate. Students were asked to clarify the base of their internal assessment in which 100% of the students stated that internal assessment is based on their projects submitted to the faculty and on their midterm tests and assignments. Students were asked about the understanding level of the course in their curriculum in which 100% of the students consider the course is just manageable to understand. Students were also asked to rate their subject teachers on various parameters like subject knowledge, clear communication of the teacher and preparedness of the teacher in which most of the students were highly satisfied with all the teachers. They were also asked whether teacher encourages discussion in the class for which students reported that 81% students are agreeing for the same.
- Alumnae Feedback forms were filled by 35 final year (IV Year) students. Analysis of these forms revealed following results:
100% students feel proud to be L.A.D. Alumnae, 88% students opine that various types of activities organized by institution are very good and 12% said excellent contributing to the overall development of the students. Also nearly 100% of the students have shown their willingness positively to contribute towards the development of the organization in future as well. 35% of the students find the environment of the campus is excellent and remaining opine it as very good. It gives immense pleasure to find that 65% of the students considered that teaching standard of the institute is excellent. They are also highly positive about the student amenities provide to them as 53% of the students find it excellent and 27% as very good. Assessment and examination system is one of the important parameter in judging the quality of institution. Nearly 65% of the students consider that assessment and examination system of the institution as excellent. Overall rating given by students to the institution is positive. 100% of the students find the institute as excellent. None of the student had rated it poor or average.
- The institution also considers the opinion of the parents important, hence Parental Satisfaction Feedback was provided to the parents. 15 parents responded to it. Parents were asked to rate the provision of career oriented program provided by the college to the students in which 63% of the parents found it very good and 38% parents found it excellent. Secondly parents were asked to rate the system of monitoring students' progress by the college in which 75% parents stated it as very good and 25% parents as excellent. Parents were also asked to rate competence of the teachers. 75% of the parents found the teachers very good and 25% parents found the competency level of teacher as excellent. Parents were also asked to rate the commitment of teachers towards students. 50% of the parents found the commitment level as excellent and 38% parents found it very good. Parents were asked to give an opinion about whether college is sensitive to community needs and extension program. Nearly 88% of the parents found it excellent. Parents were also asked to rate the infrastructural facilities provided by college to students. Nearly 50% of the parents rated it very good whereas 38% parents rated it excellent. Parents were also asked to rate the provisions of learning resources in the college such as library, internet, computer, etc. Nearly 50% parents revealed that the learning resources provided to students are very good whereas 50% parents found it excellent. Parents were asked to rate support services to students like canteen, Career Counseling Cell, etc. in which nearly 63% of the parents rated it very good and 37% of parents rated it excellent. Parents were also asked to rate the value added education program in the college. Nearly 25% of the parents rated it very good and 75% of the parents rated it excellent. Next the parents were asked to rate the security arrangements of the college in which nearly 75% of the parents rated it as excellent. Parents were also asked to rate parent teacher communication in the college in which nearly 12% parents rated it very good and 88% rated it excellent.